I had a dream tonight
And the hangover still remains.
The bright firmament,
Peace, tranquility, harmony all around.
All pure and frith.
Lo! The serenity begins.

A celestial being walking with me,
Holding my hand,
Driving me towards
His own self,
Showering His benedictions.

Up, up, I am moving
In the air.
The body doesn't quiver,
Only the soul,
Flying high.
High in the azure void,
Approaching the golden abode,
Feeling emancipated and free
From the ties of the visible.

Suddenly,
The shackles of the cosmos,
The voices of outer universe,

Snapped and broke my journey.

And me,
Rejecting all,
Engrossing myself in worldly pursuits,
All the pleasures, though transient,
Tempted by the small thoughts,
Estranging by the higher sojourn, the Divine Grace,
Completely drowning myself
Fell again,
in a whirlpool,
In a mud ocean
Never to come out perhaps.
